

Preventing Community Crisis

A New Dynamic in Community-Police Relationships

Two-day course
addressing:

- Police-Community Partnerships
- Procedural Justice
- Community Service Units or Functions
- Implicit Bias

ACTIONABLE STRATEGIES.

- Advance new strategies for developing crisis-proof community partnerships.
- Apply the NUCPS Police-Community Partnership Checklist for evaluation and planning.
- Improve community service units, officers, and agency image by applying measurable and focused performance expectations.
- Recognize implicit bias, minimize its effects, and be able to update and establish policies that nourish an environment of procedural justice.
- Gain insight into the expectations of policing in the 21st century.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Law enforcement supervisors, chiefs of police, sheriffs, executives as well as mayors, city managers, and other leaders in local government are strongly encouraged to attend.

Register

LOUISVILLE, COLORADO

April 19-20, 2017

8 am to 5 pm

Hosted by the Louisville Police Department

Louisville Fire Station Number 1

1240 Main Street

Louisville, CO 80027

Registration deadline: March 17

Tuition: $290 per person

Seats are limited. To register, go to:

nucps.northwestern.edu/PCC17

Or call: 800-323-4011

ABOUT NUCPS

NUCPS is the home of the prestigious School of Police Staff and Command and other nationally recognized courses. NUCPS leads the way in the professional development of public safety personnel in the U.S. and abroad.

Northwestern | CENTER FOR PUBLIC SAFETY

nucps.northwestern.edu

MANAGEMENT HIGHWAY SAFETY FORENSICS POLICE MOTORCYCLE